The Tucson Board of Trade called a meeting last week to consider the question of erecting cottages to accommodate people visiting Tucson during the coming winter. This is a question for the Board of Trade of Flagstaff to consider, as our city is drawing hundreds of visitors every summer we must provide accommodations to induce them to come. Visitors increase our business and we should offer inducements in the way of accommodations, so that they will come. If we can induce people to come here the conditions are such that a great many will settle with us, and make investments thereby assisting in building up the city.

Owing to over-crowding and bad ventilation, the air of the schoolroom is often close and impure, and teachers and pupils frequently suffer from lung and throat troubles. To all such we would say, try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For coughs, colds, weak lungs and bronchial troubles no other remedy can compare with it. Says A. C. Freed, superintendent of schools, Prairie Depot, Ohio: "Having some knowledge of the efficacy of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who suffer from coughs, lung troubles, etc." For sale at D. J. Brannen's drug store.

Last Saturday a drunken hobo commenced to canvass the business portion of town for money to buy his breakfast, but he became so persistent and insulting that it aroused the sympathies of officers, Fairchild and Black, who invited and accompanied him to the county hotel, where his board was free, if he would stay with it. He was one of a gang that was camped near town, who had a legless man begging money for them the day before to buy whiskey with, but this one had drank more than his share, and was doing the begging act himself when the officers took compassion on him and gathered him in.
